Strengthening
Chicago's Youth

Letter from the Director

Greetings!,

The racist and homophobic attack last week in Chicago against actor Jussie Smollett is a reminder of the disturbing reality for many across our country. No one should live in fear of violence, simply for being who they are particularly for sexual orientation or the color of their skin. We must remain steadfast in calling out racism and homophobia when they present themselves, and support victims of these heinous crimes.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Levin, MPH
